Novel Scheme for Competition

Novel Scheme for Competition
With the tilea of interesting the personnel almost to a man, Colonel Poster has formulated a novel scheme for competition. Instead of choosing teams from regiments or battaflous, the teams in the Pith Cotps competitions will be selected from companies. The best company team in each division will represent the division in the flacks of the teams and the all-arround qualities of the team will count. This will make it possible for the organizations which do not have world-besters in any one-transition of the general make-up of the team is good crough to out-average its opponents. The general idea of the schedule is forquantity production, even to the exclusion of specialization. To get every soldier interested for his physical and montal become is the plan of the fift time that it has been tried out on such a large scale, it seems to meet with the approval of Mr. Buck, Private.

Boxing Is Popular

Boxing Is Popular

Boxing has come into its own everywhere. There is hardly a unit without its aspirant for championship honors, and many of the men have been giving away weight in order to get into the preliminary bouts.

The Pestival Hall at Coblenz, where the Third Army elimination bouts are being conducted, is packed every Saturday night. The F.M.C.A. is having a big hat put up nearby to take care of the overdow. ARMY MAY HANDLE ATHLETIC SUPPLIES

Y. M. C. A. Director Claims Welfare Organizations Duplicate Work

In order to provide for an equitable ainstribution of athletic supplies throughout the Army, Eiwood S. Brown, director of athletics of the V.M.C.A. has sugnessed that all athletic supplies contributed to the A.E.F. through various welfare organizations be pooled and distributed where they are most needed by the chief athletic officer of the A.E.F. Lader the present system, Mr. Brown declares, certain units often seceive more athletic material than they need, while others do not receive enough. The plan be suggests aims to do away with this duplication and at the same tifue relieve the various athletic directors of the burden of distribution, so that they can devote their entire time to training the line.

Capacity House Watches G.H.Q. Ring Aspirants Battle at Y.M.C.A.

The S.R.O. sign dangled merrily in the Y.M.C.A. auditorium at Chaumont Friday night. Inside a capacity crowd witnessed one of the best boxing programs staged at the hall this year. All the bouts were three round affairs.

"Battling" Harry Rose, Co. II, 22th Engineers, and Jimmy Rice, G.B.Q., mixed it in the initial bout. Brose secured to force wore eye glasses and couldn't see it that way. Rice was apparently not in the best of condition.

plans to match the Rev. Farl A. Black-man, chaplain, 130th Field Artillery, and the Rev. Charles Rexode, chaplain, 316th M.P., over a ten-round course at the Palais de Glace, in Paris.

Reports that a misunderstanding arose over weight conditions are unfounded, there being only one pound difference in weight between the two candidates for pugilistic honors. Chaplain Blackman topn the scales at 161 pounds, while Chaplain Rexrode weighs in at 165. Both men are Westerners, used to the rugged out-of-doors life, have often been in the ring, and are about the same age, Chaplain Blackman being 37 and his would-be op-ponent 40.
